

Scary Stories:

Object of Game: Tell a chilling tale or two.

Preparation: None

Playing the Game:

1. Sit around in a circle in a darkened room, with a flashlight in the middle of the circle. We do not recommend candles, as it can be dangerous with the kids.
2. One player starts the game by saying "Once there was....." and makes one or two sentences. It should relate to and build upon what was previously said.
3. The next person to the right then adds to the story a couple of sentences. Go around the room at least once.
4. Try to make the stories scary or gross.

Tips and Ideas, start with:

Once there was an old man walking through the graveyard.....

Once there was an old lady who look so much like a witch.....

Once there was a shadow.....

Once there was an erie sound that was like.....
