

Movie Picture Clues

This is a game where party guests are given handouts with images on them. Some of the images refer to a movie title specifically, while the other images refer to things associated with the movie. The challenge for the guests is to figure out which horror movie the clues are referring to.

Guests can compete individually or as teams. Each one needs a copy of the 8 sheets. The first person or team to have them all correct (or the most correct answers once time is up) wins.

Description of the Images / Answers

Some of the images may not be clearly identifiable at first. As a host it's important you know what they are supposed to be a picture of.

Clues are labelled "Title" (meaning it's a clue to the specific words in the title of the movie) or "Reference" (meaning they are images associated with the movie).
